

Man, Woman, and the Order of Creation

Monday, Dec. 11, 2017

7:30 – 9:00 p.m.

OEC Auditorium, University of St. Thomas

*“Valuing one’s own body in its femininity or masculinity is necessary if I am going to be able to recognize myself in an encounter with someone who is different. In this way we can joyfully accept the specific gifts of another man or woman, the work of God the Creator, and find mutual enrichment.” – Pope Francis, Laudato Si’, 155.*

This event will explore the Catholic vision of the human person in its scientific, theological, and social context. It is the culmination of a day-long symposium and is intended to provide us with the pastoral insights and language we all need to reach out to others in truth and in love.

Mr. Walter Heyer: Rethinking Transgenderism: An Autobiographical Account

Michelle Cretella, M.D.: The Science of Sex Differences

Ryan Anderson, Ph.D.: Understanding and Responding to the Transgender Moment
